Dedication.

To Sir Richard Culley Phillips, Bart. M. P.
of Picton Castle, Pembrokeshire.

Sir,

Several of the Tunes, in this Collection, having been presented to me by your late lamented Sister, whose Skill & Proficiency in Music were only exceeded by her many Virtues, the Volume was intended, having received her Permission to be inscribed with her Name. But it having pleased an All wise Providence to translate her to that state, where by choirs of Saints & Angels, are sung more perfect Hallelujahs, I am naturally induced, Sir, to turn my thoughts to you who, for practical Skill & scientific Judgement, in the same pleasing Art, so much resemble her. That the sacred Tunes, thus permitted to be placed under your Patronage, may receive your Approval, & that long they may delight your ear, in your own Castle, rendered audible by the fine Organ which you honoured me by intrusting to my care, for repertation, is the sincere wish of, Sir.

your most respectful

and much obliged Servant.
